“ From the one who has all power and authority i greet this beloved family in the name of God the Father I as the Pastor of New Bethel AME Church, must say to you all i didn't know him as long you all did, but the from the first day i met him on that corner of TJ"s he became a very loving friend to me spiritually as well as personal. for me the smile he carried thru the storm he was going thru is what i will always miss, but yet!! i will cherish it deeply in my heart, that as i look up i know he is still smiling and letting and all know it is well with the Lord for now i am at the meeting with those i have missed, Family be blessed and lifted in a higher and greater than ourselves

“ I am praying for the family and just want you to know I have always admired Alvin. His quaint smile and soft approach always made me feel good to be in his presence. I wonder if he ever knew my name cause he always called me Jean. Great memories keep one alive in the hearts of those left behind. Alvin you were my hero and I loved you for always being kind.
