“ Life is so unpredictable, words sometimes brings laughter but at this moment tears. Although I know Manda is in a better place, it still hurt me that my cousin left so soon. My last memory of you will always be cherished; you and I seating on the front porch reminiscing on the good times. As tears fall, a smile emerge because I know you're smiling as well while looking down from heaven saying cuz do you! I will miss you dearly Manda but in time will see you again love you Fam.

“ Utter disbelief!! Such a ray of sunshine, it was a pleasure to care for you and watch you beat cancer! I can still remember the first day we met. Scared out of your mind, but you prevailed. Your mother and children are in my prayers. Extremely thankful I was blessed with your presence on last Tuesday.
