

Mr. Antonio Bernard Kimble

March 8, 1977 - December 18, 2024

Antonio Bernard Kimble, affectionately known as "T-Bone," was born on March 8, 1977, to Carolyn Bates and Robert Kimble. On Wednesday, December 18, 2024, he departed this life to be with the Lord.

At an early age, Antonio accepted Christ as his Lord and Savior and was spiritually nurtured at Galilee Baptist Church in Magnolia, Arkansas.

He received his formal education in the Magnolia School District. His fifth-grade teacher, Mrs. Wanda Roach, fondly remembered him and recounted, "Antonio ("Toyi") Kimble had a personality that made those close to him feel assured of his unwavering friendship. Even as a child, he was loyal to those he deemed worthy and never hesitated to show respect when it was mutual. Toyi was a steadfast friend, a fearless defender of the bullied, and a protector of those he loved like family. Though life's challenges sometimes led him astray, he became determined to better himself and those he cared for. He accepted responsibility for his actions and worked to make positive changes in his life. Whether others saw him as successful or not, what mattered was that he tried. Though his journey ended abruptly, his faith in God remained personal and steadfast. Toyi knew the Lord, and more importantly, God knew Toyi."

Antonio was deeply devoted to his family and always willing to help those he loved. While he might playfully “talk noise” when asked for help, he ensured his loved ones were well taken care of. His grandchildren were his greatest joy, and he cherished every moment spent with them—they truly had him wrapped around their fingers.

Antonio had a passion for fishing, restoring cars for shows, and breeding and selling pit bulls. A proud Dallas Cowboys fan, his support for the team never wavered, win or lose.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Carolyn Bates and Robert Kimble.

Antonio’s legacy is carried on by his fiancée, Sabrina Dolberry; his two sons, Kadarrion Cortez Cooper and Keenan Harris; his two daughters, Tianna Ja’Nae Walker and Kennedi Harris; and his three grandchildren: LaShay Ann Paschal-Cooper, Car’laya Ca’Mahri Cooper, and Ka’Marion Crabtree. He is also survived by four brothers: Gregory Paschal, Adrian (Phaedra) Grissom, Christopher Jackson, and Winford Kimble; three sisters: Chandra Marshall, Tyronsala (Bryant) Grissom, and Robinette Manning; his beloved and favorite cousin, Jackie Weaver; and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, other relatives, and friends who will miss him dearly.

Antonio's life was a testament to love, loyalty, and perseverance. Though his time with us was cut short, the memories he leaves behind will forever remain in the hearts of those who knew and loved him.

Ceremonial Cremation services will be held Friday, December 27th, 2024, at R.L. Reed Funeral Home Chapel in Magnolia, Arkansas at 1:00 p.m., under the direction of R.L. Reed Funeral Home, LLC.
