Mr. Casey Gilmore was born in Magnolia, AR to the late George “Bill” Gilmore and Rosie Cooper-Gilmore on February 15, 1947. He was the seventh child of 11 children.

Casey confessed Jesus Christ as his Lord and Savior at an early age and was a faithful trustee at Jones Chapel Baptist Church.

Casey attended Columbia High School and later joined the US Army where he served in Vietnam from 1969-1970. After serving his country, he received an honorable discharge from the Army in 1971. Casey was awarded the NDSM (National Defense Service Medal), CIB (Combat Infantryman Badge), Purple Heart, Army Commendation Medal, VSM (Vietnam Service Medal) w/2 Bronze Awards, VCM (Vietnam Campaign Medal) w/60 device and two Meritorious Awards. He continued his civil services for over 20 years in the US National Guard Reserve; and was a faithful employee with Amfuel for 29 years until he became disabled. Casey was also a member of the (BUMC) Brothers United Men Club, and he was a proud member of Prince Hall Free Mason.

He united in holy matrimony with his soulmate, Carrie Ann Gilmore, on December 31, 1984. To this union, two daughters were born—Porche’ Gilmore and Kasi “Nikki” Easter.

On Tuesday, March 15, 2022, Casey transitioned from this earthly life at Baptist Health Medical Center in Little Rock, AR. He was preceded in death by his parents, George "Bill" Gilmore, and Rosie Gilmore; and Siblings: Ora "Vicki" Thomas, Bertha Gilmore-Biddle, Georgia "GG" Lee Hanson, and Eddie Ray Gilmore.

He leaves to cherish his memories: his wife, Carrie Gilmore of 38 years; two daughters: Porche Gilmore and Kasi-Nikki (Josef) Easter; one sister, Margie Gilmore from Muskegon MI; five brothers: Clarence "Buddy" Gilmore from Englewood CA; Carlos (Maria) Gilmore, Clifton Gilmore, Raymond (Toots) Gilmore all from Muskegon, MI; and Billy Gilmore from Magnolia AR; special brother, Marty Hawkins; special godson, Tyrone Rausaw; one grandson, Kasyn J. Easter; one granddaughter, Za'Naria Gilmore-Gill; and special aunt, Lorene Rudd. Casey was also a special bonus grandfather to many children: Leighana, Traivon, Ra'Quontae, Armani, Chadyn, Justice, and Bentley. “ I don't know if this is the right guy but after doing two DNA tests this man could be my uncle. His brother Eddie Gilmore could be my biological father. I was born 04-13-1975, mom is Emma L. Jackson. I got one memory of him possibly he came to Friendship Village Apartments in KCMO, in 1987 or 88, in a Red with White top two door Cadillac. I like the Saint Louis Rams Football team so I had just bought a starter jacket of the team. With a cap of my nickname FELLA in Block letters blue. Trying too be hard he scared me when he got out his ride. So the last thing he said was after taking both off and telling me to ware RED & BLACK, and start hanging with guys who did. Was "IF YOU DON'T STOP THAT CRYING I'M GOING TO COME UP THERE AND GIVE YOU SOMETHING TO CRY ABOUT NO SON OF MINE IS GOING TO BE A CRY BABY. He promised to come back and see me later and he didn't I blamed myself because I thought adults kept promises. And a lot of times I needed his advice because he was right about that RED & BLACK colors I never knew why, he didn't like White or Blue colors. But maybe one day we'll meet again. If this is my uncle to the unknown family and friends sorry for your loss

“ To the Gilmore family, I'm still not sure. But after doing DNA tests. I believe this guy could be my uncle, his brother Eddie Gilmore. Could be my biological father. Sad too hear and learn that both are no longer here for me to know. I don't know but he does look a little like me. I think I only got a chance too met my dad once at the age of 12. I was born in KCMO, on April 13, 1975 my mom is Emma L. Jackson. Of Fitzhugh Arkansas. If anyone knows are has done a DNA test on Ancestry, or 23 and me. I would like to ask if we can talk. I stay in Upland CA. And trying just too know anything about who my father was. All I know from my mom was that he had a brother. She met him and his mom in KCK. And she said when I was born she would take me too them. And they would keep me for the weekend. I don't know why or what happened. For them too stop. I don't know if it was him, but in 1987 or 88. A guy came by in a two door Red with White top Cadillac about a 87 or 88 and I remember he seemed tall and big. And he picked me up and sat me between him and my mom. Where we talked, I was mad because I had a liking for the Saint Louis Rams football team. And had a brand new Starter Jacket of theirs. And a hat with my nickname in Blue FELLA it said. And when he put me between him and my mom. He took both off and said not too ware them colors. So when I jump out his car mad and crying. The last words I can remember him saying. "IF YOU DON'T STOP THAT D, CRYING IMGOING TO COME UP THERE AND GIVE YOU SOMETHING TO CRY ABOUT. NO SON OF MINE IS GOING TO BE A CRY BABY" get with some guys that ware RED AND BLACK. I'll see you later, but that later never came but I did get with some guys who wore RED and BLACK. I never knew why he didn't want me in White and Blue items. Because he never came back and I thought it was because me. I think that was the best advice anyone gave me. So on this father Day Eddie Gilmore, if you were my father thank you pops. And sorry we never got too see each other again

Heartfelt sympathy and love to the entire family of Casey. A friend, a brother in Christ and classmate, will be dearly missed. We pray that you will hold dear all the good memories you made with your loved one. There are lots of school and class reunion memories that will keep him close to my heart. Casey was a man of action and few words. You could depend on him doing whatever was necessary to make things go smoothly. Casey was a Christian because he showed it in his daily life by being a giver. Rest now from you pain and labor. Not saying goodbye but see you later my friend.
