“ My condolences to the family. I'm a friend of Constance and she talked about Christy all the time and her travels back and forth to help her in her time of need. I'm sure she was a loving individual. She will be missed and her memories cherished for days to come. My prayers are with the family.

“ To the Family of Christy: My heart grew weak when I heard the news of Christy going to a new home. You see, I never met her, except through Constance, her aunt. We call Constance our church daughter and love her like she’s our own. She shared so many wonderful things about Christy that my husband and I along with our prayer partners felt like we knew her. She will be missed even by us who never physically met her but loved her deeply. May our Lord comfort you and heal your hearts and bring you peace. Lucille Bowditch
