

Mr. DC McDaniel

December 25, 1939 - September 6, 2025

Mr. DC McDaniel was born on December 25, 1939, in Village, Arkansas, to the late Rosie and Floyd McDaniel. He was the eldest of twelve children. At 19, with encouragement from his Uncle LS, he moved to Muskegon, Michigan, where he became a dedicated employee at Campbells/CWC Textron foundry, retiring after 30 years of service. Even after retirement, DC stayed busy, often detailing cars before eventually moving back to his beloved hometown of Village in 1999.

He had a love for being outdoors and active. “D”, as his younger brother AC called him, loved the heat. He enjoyed walking the McDaniel land, collecting tree limbs that he would carve, twist, and paint into unique canes admired by many. He also spent time gardening, fishing, hunting, and building barbecue grills. DC loved a good game of dominoes or bowling, excelling at both, and was an avid sports fan who especially enjoyed basketball and football.

DC was also known for his sharp sense of style. When he stepped out, he was always dressed from head to toe with a signature cane to match, ready to enjoy himself, laugh, and joke with family and friends until the party ended. He loved listening to the Blues during the week, but Sundays were reserved for Gospel.

His personality shone through in his favorite sayings, “I done told ya,” “It’s all good,” and “Tell them DC said it”, along with his trademark thumbs-up and playful fist wave.

On Saturday, September 6, 2025, DC departed this life at his home in Waldo, Arkansas, at the age of 85.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Rosie and Floyd McDaniel; stepmother, Aretha McDaniel; one sister, Flora Hudson; and three brothers: John C. McDaniel, James Eric McDaniel, and JC McDaniel.

He leaves to cherish his memory eight children: Derrick McDaniel of Muskegon, MI; Bobbie Burris and Carla McDaniel both of Bellevue, NE; Christopher Stimage of Muskegon, MI; TeAngelo Robinson (Kendrah) of Fruitport, MI; Frankie Jones and Rose Jones, both of Muskegon, MI; and LaToya McDaniel of Holland, MI; along with a host of grandchildren and great-grandchildren. He is also survived by three brothers: AC McDaniel (Hazel) of Waldo, AR, LC McDaniel (Faye) of Hollis, OK, and Kenneth McDaniel (Shirley) of Fort Worth, TX; four sisters: Dora Blanks of Milwaukee, WI; Janis Strickland of Mansfield, TX; Mary Lynn McCoy and Jackie Campbell (Joe), both of Fort Worth, TX; his uncle, LS McDaniel of Muskegon, MI; and many nieces, nephews, cousins, and dear friends who will miss him deeply.
