“ My friend Debra! Soooo sweet was she. I'm hurting so badly because I didn't know she was down like that. I attended a workshop in Little Rock during a week she was there and didn't know it. I pray that God let her know I didn't know or I would have certainly visited her all three days. This is a reminder to me and maybe others that if you don't hear from a friend in a month or so, it's best to try and connect with that person. We just don't know! Grew up with her in the Cotton Belt community and we had such great pure and fun times. We all miss Debra. Her family was so close and we will lift them up in prayers. Rickey Lambert

“ I will never forget the times I spent in Cottonbelt with Aunt Alma, Uncle Lus, Lana, Aunt Betty Jo and Uncle Arvis. Lana and I would see Debra pull up at her parents house and down the road Lana and I went. Debra looked out for us. She would tell us we better get back down the road. We had been gone long enough. She was the most sweetest person you could ever come in contact with. She was an angel right here. She had the sweetest spirit and I know she will be miss.

You all have my deepest and heartfelt sympathy!! May God comfort and give you the peace that surpasses all understanding.

“ Oh my this has been a hard one for me. I know God does not make a mistake. I am going to miss the times when I would go down stairs and she would ask me what Isaac (My Grand baby) have you doing this weekend. We would laugh and talk about our grandchildren. She really loved her family. We would always tease each other and say, what did the doctor fuss about today. Just loved her so much she was part of my work family.

Mrs. Debra, God has given you, your wings...fly high and get your rest...God has taken you to a place to where there is no more...no more pain...no more sleepless night..no more doctor appointment...no more disappointments in your life....no more heartache...just no more of anything that you had to endure down here on this earth.

God has plucked another beautiful angel from my life. So, glad I know the Lord...Mrs. Debra I am not saying good by...I am just saying good night and I will see you in the morning.

Love and miss you so much....

My thoughts and prayers are with the Banks Family. May you find solace in the sweet, sweet memories you made with your loved one and knowing she now rest in the arms of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Always look to the hills from whence cometh your help. Just remember where your help cometh from. A friend.
