“ Uncle Tiny was the uncle in the family that everyone respected and enjoyed being around. Whether he was playing dominos at our family cookouts with Randy and Uncle Roy; singing the lead during a family singing time (and taking over the song because he always had to lead the song) :) or when he offered words of encouragement to Floyd and me during our wedding and DROPPED the mic when he was done - this was our Uncle Tiny.

We all have so many fun memories of Uncle Tiny. He will be missed by his family, his sisters, brother, nieces and nephews.

We all find comfort in knowing that God knew best and Uncle Tiny is one more angel watching over our family.

RIP Uncle Tiny....

“ One of my favorite memories of Tiny was that I had a flat tire at work one day and Tiny said he would help me. When I opened the trunk he said, "GIRL, your BEST TIRE is riding around in the trunk!" Such a practical man!
If i listen real hard, I can still hear Tiny and Robert laughing as they worked in the Press Room... he enjoyed his work and it showed.
