“ When you(Eric) arrived in the Pacific Northwest (Seattle/bremerton) in 86/87 we immediately became close friends. You came right in hung with us and didn't miss a beat. We lost connect for a number of years but a few years back reconnected and picked right back up laughing about all the times on the bus etc ... with Scott/Ted/ Andre/Todd ... Dave Kraft/ and my sister Michelle Bynes. When I called you to tell you Michelle had passed - you said" I need to call your mom". My friend RIP

“ Having Had the Opportunity to Meet An Older Sibling As Well Getting To Know You Was A Blessing. I Am ThankFul For The Time Shared And The Brother/Sister Conversations. I Admired You In Different Ways. Your Life Came To A Short Sweet End, but God Needed You More. Unforgotten Memories Will Be What They Are. May Your Soul Now Rest & Be At Peace. As Tanza stated”A Piece Of the Sibling Puzzle Is Now Gone!” May You Now Be The 🕊️ Guardian Angel🕊️ Over Your Loved Ones- Especially Azeriqua.

♥️ With All Of Our Love♥️,

“ My dear cousin, took a long time for this city girl to find her loving country cuzzo....in San Diego of all places. You always made sure I was good and I you. We didn't get to grow up together, but the little time we had will forever be in my heart. Tell Mom, Auntie, grandma and grandpa hello. I know now, you're alright!!! Love you always Red❤️

From the first time I met Eric, he was kind, sweet, and respectful. I felt comforted knowing he was my daughter's brother and was someone I did not have to worry about being resentful or less than loving to her. Rest in love Eric.

“ Eric I have so many good memories of you❤️. My daughter couldn't have chosen a better man to be her husband. Thank you for doing such an incredible job of taking care of your family. No one can fill the shoes that you stood in when it comes to you being my son-in-law. I will miss you tremendously, so this is not goodbye it's merely see you later son.❤️💕
