Sending special prayers and love to the Queary-Davis Families. Romans 8:18 says, "For I consider that the sufferings of this present time are not worth comparing with the glory that is to be revealed to us." As you prepare to lay your loved one to rest, find solace in all the great memories you made with her. Also know that you do not walk this path along, there are many friends who share in this loss. Remember, God has made us a promise, that He would never leave us nor forsake us. Erica is at peace, no more pain or suffering, just sweet rest in the arms of our Savior. We are not saying goodbye, just see you later. Rest well Erica. She will be truly missed. ❤️✝️🌟🙏

“ Choo Choo, wasn't a stranger to anyone, she moved around WestWood Village visiting mostly every household over there as a little girl. I'm sadden for the loss and wish there was something I could do to change this unhappy moment. I feel a personal loss. I know she done all she could do, nevertheless, She shared a happy life with her children and friends here in Magnolia Arkansas. We are all devastated over her passing. I pray that God opened the door to her new eternal home and we will rejoice again in his house one day! I Love You Choo Choo baby!!!! RIL #
