

Mrs. Eula Mae Brown

October 1, 1937 - February 2, 2016

She was the daughter of Mr. Lee Jene and Mrs. Lula Mae Brown, worked at Southern state College in magnolia, AR. during her early Years.

As young ladies, she and her siblings formed a group called "The Brown Sisters" and sang for many years. her favorite song was "Don't drive Me Away" by the Staples Singers.

She met Mr. Earnest Lambert and they had six children together.

She was preceded in death by her parents, two children; Henry James and Bobbie Lambert, and one sister; Corine Alexander.

She survived by; her children: Eula lambert, Rickey (Pam) Lambert, Kathy (Rodney) Johnson, and Felicia Lambert. Her siblings; Lee V. (Katie) Brown, Essie L. Lambert, Lee A. (Nug) {Roy Mae} Brown of Dallas, TX, Bishop Lee A. (Omega) Brown of Duncanville, TX., Shirley J. (Aaron) Blackwell of Waldo, AR., Margie R. (Sonny) Turner of Waldo, AR., Minnie L. (Randy) Malone of Waldo, AR., Arthur D. (Etta) Brown of Rockwall, TX., and Linzell (Mary Ann) Davis of Waldo, AR.

Homegoing celebration was held Saturday, February 6th, at 2:00 p.m., at Cotton Belt Church Of God In Christ in Waldo, AR. Interment was in the Cedar Grove Cemetery in Waldo, AR.

Superintendent James Turner officiated.