

Mrs. Gladys Mae Carrington

September 8, 1936 - November 18, 2020

Gladys Mae Carrington was born September 8, 1936. She departed this life to gain her heavenly wings on Wednesday, November 18, 2020, at her home in Emerson, AR.

Gladys was born to L.C. and Lottie Mae Easter. She was preceded in death by her parents; grandparents; her husband, Melvin Carrington; two brothers, Doris Ray Easter, and Willie C. Easter; two sisters, Rena Mae Lee, and Ola Mae Smith; and one granddaughter, Tracy Carrington.

Gladys attended Old McMittress school in Emerson, AR. She left school at an early age to work so that she could provide for her family. She had a passion for baking and taking care of her family. After years of hard work, she met Melvin Carrington. From this union, four children were born: Alee Murphy, Melvin (Mary) Carrington, Janet Carrington, and Billie Joe Carrington.

Gladys was a faithful member of Mt. Israel C.M.E in Emerson, AR. She was the President of the Stewart Board, Kitchen Committee, Christmas Sock Club, Benevolent offering, and the Willing Worker ministry. Gladys was also the Vice President of the Missionary Society and the Treasurer of the Sunday School Department.

Gladys is survived by her children: Alee Murphy, Melvin (Mary) Carrington, Janet Carrington, and Billie Carrington; siblings: Willie B. (Vera) Daniels, Nathaniel Easter, Alvern (Bennie) Bass, and Gloria (Donald) Doss; her grandchildren: Gwendolyn (Steve) Reed, Maurice Carrington, LaMorris Carrington, Krystal Davis, Ashlay Carrington, Keshawn Carrington, Thomas Murphy, DeAnna Henderson, Cadeidre (Demonia) Hill, Roderick Henderson, Terrell Carrington, and Tracy Carrington; 23 great grandchildren; special friends: Sis. Ann Polk—her prayer partner, and best friends, Sis. Doshia Gatson and Georgia V. Easter; a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives, and friends.

Glady I will truly miss you.I don't have anyone to say, " I will help you. I will do what I can to help you. " We did work well together at church. Lots of laughs and fun in the kitchen at church. We had our talk every day. I will and do miss you ,but now you do not have any pain. My sympathy to your children and other family members.(Rest in peace my friend)!!!!
