“ Ms. Gwen was a dear friend of ours. She was one of our first fruit-picking customers and also supported our Fall Fun in the Country with the children from surrounding counties. We remember when she would bring the church bus out loaded with fellow church-goers. We will deeply miss Ms. Gwen, her laughter and smile. God has another Angel. Our thoughts and prayers go out to Ms. Gwen's family. Sylvia and David Reddin (Suzanne's Fruit Farm, Hampton, AR).

I shared a special friendship with Gwen, as I know everyone else did. I first met her in Westwood Village as a young girl . She was a loving person with warmth and understanding. My most interaction with Gwen was the Fifth annual Fishing Derby SPONSORED by St Mark Missionary Church at the Duck Pond on SAU campus. I published the moments of the entire event in special publication of "Street Perspective Magazine, where I met her Loving Mother, Sister and Nephew and Church Family.....Her participation with us will be greatly missed. May her immediate family continue to hold the strong bond she built with strength and love. GWEN IS ALRIGHT NOW AND HAS MOVED INTO HER MANSION ON EVERLASTING LANE WITH THE FATHER, THE SON AND THE HOLY GHOST! GOD IS AWESOME!
