“ In the two years we’ve spent together, through the ups and downs, I’ve always adored him. Although we broke up and stopped speaking 2020 I always thought about him. My heart hurts for his family because he genuinely didn’t deserve this. I’ll love him forever and hold our memories close to my heart. RIP Manny ☐

“ I remember the first time I met Immanuel. I was recently hired at LA Tech to coach the defensive line. IT was already committed and I was in his house to meet him and his family. His Mom and Grandmother did most of the talking and IT did almost all of the grinning. It was a privilege to coach IT his entire career at LA Tech. He was part of what I perceived as a very close knit group. IT was a hard worker, always respectful and loved by his teammates, my wife Marsha and me. I will miss that smile but I know God is enjoying it now.

Rest in Peace

Prayers of Sympathy sent to the family, May you be reminded you of what the scripture says in Isaiah 26:4; "He will keep you in perfect peace al those who trust in Him". Praying God will enclose you with His loving arms and help smooth the hurt in your heart at this time. Rest in Love and Peace Immanuel.

“ I was the librarian at Magnolia Jr. High when Immanuel was a freshman. I didn't know him well, but I will always remember how he would speak to me and sometimes give me a hug as he passed me in the hall. He was respectful, kind, and a wonderful young man. I'm praying for his family.
