“ I had some Agriculture classes with Marty in high school. He is one of the funniest people I've ever met, he always made anyone who came in contact with him laugh. He was a cool person to be around, never failed to speak to me when I came into Walmart even if it was just a wave. Marty will truly be missed by everyone. My prayers go out to his family in hopes that God will bring them peace & comfort during this difficult time

“ It truly saddens my heart to be sending condolences to family of Jamarius("Marty"). I've known Jamarius since he was attending 'Central Elementary' and rode my bus(Flag Bus #47), he, Makayla and Terrence. I retired and was gone away from the school system for 5 years. When I returned, Jamarius was a senior in high school, so I was able to see him through that last year of school. After seniors were out preparing for graduation, Jamarius and another graduating senior came to the school to rib the students still in school(smile). I happen to be subbing that day and he came by my class(that day will forever be etched in my mind and heart). When they were leaving, he said 'Bye Mrs. Jackson' and I replied back to him, 'Bye Jamarius', not knowing I would be saying a final bye to him in such a short span of time. I now say my final 'Bye Jamarius'(GONE TOO SOON)!!!!!!!!!!!!!!
My Deepest Sympathy,
Mrs. S. Jackson

“ I just saw him on last Sunday encouraging his Aunt Teresa to get better. He gave me his seat when I came into the room like a true gentleman. As his great aunt, this is very hard to take especially when you just saw him. Rest in Peace, my dear great nephew. Until we meet again.

“ My heart broke today when I heard of Jamarius's passing. I taught him in second grade. I was in Walmart a couple of weeks ago and saw him working. I recognized his sweet face of a sweet little second grader. I asked him if he was Jamarius. He smiled his sweet smile and said "yes man". He was a precious little boy and seemed to have grown into a nice young man. My thoughts and prayers are with you as you go through this heart breaking journey.
