“ To Jackie

My hearts ache for you in the loss of your son. So I can only imagine what you must be feeling. What a horrible time for you; I wish I could take away the pain!

Roady was such a wonderful young man, so full of life and promise. He always provided a positive smile and warm hugs for everyone around him, . I know you were proud of him.

May you find peace and comfort in the knowledge that he is now with God, and that he has received his eternal reward in heaven.

We have no words to make you feel any better or to offer any real relief from your pain. All we can say is that we are so terribly sorry.

When you are ready, we will get together soon.

Barbara McBride - May 23, 2016 at 01:22 PM

“ I remember the last time I seen him he rode by my mama house and rolled the window on his truck..but I can hear him saying girl you ain't ready. Rowdy was like a brother to me and we messed with each other all the time. This is so untrue this will take awhile to be believable. I know we shouldn't question the work the good lord does but sometimes you just want to know why. Heaven has gained an angel. PROVERBS 16:9 We can make our plans but the lord determines our steps. At the end of the day God knows best. I love you DayyJayy aka Rowdy...And your family will be in my prayers..R.I.L baby boy
