

Mr. James "COOP" Henry Cooper

December 17, 1961 - September 3, 2020

James Henry "Coop" Cooper born December 17, 1961 in Magnolia, Arkansas, to the late Henry Lee Cooper and late Mary Jamerson.

James attended school in the Magnolia School District, where he was an awesome football player, and graduated in 1981.

James joined Damascus Baptist Church in Village, Arkansas at an early age. He also loved attending several other churches when they were having gospel singing programs because he loved to listen to gospel music.

James worked at ConAgra Poultry Plant in El Dorado, Arkansas for over thirteen (13) years. He traveled the road many nights in the rain, sleet, and snow going to ConAgra. James later started work at Amfuel, January 6, 2004, and worked there for sixteen (16) years, seven (7) months, and twenty-eight (28) days until his death.

James enjoyed life and lived life to the fullest. He enjoyed traveling with his classmates, 'Class of 81'. James loved going to the racetracks with his son. HE LOVED HIS CARS!! He also loved to travel to California and Las Vegas to visit his sisters.... they treated him like a 'King'.

James met no strangers and everyone that met him loved something about him. James was straightforward and direct, but funny all at the same time. James loved to visit his family and friends' home to eat and talk. James loved his pinto beans. If you know James, then you know about those pintos with a lot of sugar!

James was preceded in death by his father, Henry Lee Cooper; mother, Mary G. Jamerson; stepfather, Nathaniel Jamerson; one (1) son James (Roady) Cooper; two (2) brothers, James Earl, and Victor Cooper.

He leaves to cherish his memories: one (1) daughter, Ja'Shaunda Allen of Homer, Louisiana; three (3) sons, Kentorius "Bull" Carey (Shunta) of Magnolia, Arkansas, Leroy Harris (Tamara) of Conway, Arkansas, and Jamie Cooper of Kansas City; seventeen (17) sisters, Diane Brown (Terry) of Waldo, Arkansas, Vanessa Cooper and Lea Ann Cooper both of Texarkana, Texas, Mattie Faye Jamerson and Nichole Moss (Frank) both of Magnolia, Arkansas, Barbara Wright, Lorraine Harper, Gloria Cooper, Henrietta Cooper, Tonya Cooper, Keyla Cooper, and Denise Cooper all of Los Angeles, California, Tyrunya Cooper and Cheryl Paschel of Las Vegas, Nevada, Deidra Forrest of Camden, Arkansas, Leslie Cooper of Magnolia, Arkansas, and Alicia Smith of Hope, Arkansas; three (3) brothers, David Easter (Paulette) of Camden, Arkansas, Henry Dale Cooper of Magnolia, Arkansas, and LaShaun Hunter of Dallas, Texas; two (2) special brothers from 'ANOTHER MOTHER', Greg Carter and Larry Smith both of Magnolia, Arkansas; two (2) special sisters, Angie Faye Richardson of Dallas, Texas, and Cornelia Critton of Magnolia, Arkansas; thirteen (13) grandchildren, Zyiah, Kentavious, Ken'Veyoun, Kendrick, Zanarria, Kentorius Jr., Tjay, Kendarrius, Kendajah, Bentley, Justice, Madisyn, and Audriana, and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, and nephews.

“ Coop Dog, I'm going to miss that laughter(which you shared with Bull), that we had about our own secrets. All we had to do was look at each other and bust out laughing about certain situations. Rest my Brother, until that day. It's going to be alright.Our Father has promised us that. Later.
