"The Lord gave, and the Lord taken away; blessed be the name of the Lord" Job1:21. Sending heartfelt sympathy and love to the family. Please know you have friends who share in your sorrow. Jerry now rests in the arms of our Savior, where there will be no more heartaches, pain and woe, God's got him. Be thankful for the time you were able to make beautiful memories with him. These memories hopefully will give you some peace and help you face theses sad times and times to come. Rest in Peace Jerry. See you later.

Jerry you are going to be missed, grandma raised all of us to be more than cousins she raised all of her grandkids to act like brothers and sisters, all those holidays in her small house made everyone closer. Rest cousin , God will take care of you and aunt Lillie so go in peace
