

Mr. Jerry Antonio Walters

May 8, 1981 - January 30, 2023

Jerry Antonio Walters was born May 8, 1981, to Carolyn and Jeremiah Walters, in Hope, Arkansas. Jerry attended the Prescott School District where he graduated in 1999. Jerry accepted Christ at an early age. At a young age he showed interest in the piano and with age he mastered his craft. He played for several churches in the surrounding area. His church home was St. Paul Baptist Church where he spent most of his years as Minister of Music. Jerry often stated that he was a gospel musician and that he loved to minister to not only the choir, but to the congregation as well on Sunday mornings.

Jerry always had a passion for people young and old. He loved working with and serving people. Some of his job duties were mostly in Customer Service, Catering, and a Waiter. He worked for several hospitals before his health began to fail him. His passion was music and he enjoyed doing what God had destined for him. He loved to have fun and he never met a stranger. His legacy will always live within our hearts.

Jerry was preceded in death by his grandparents, Mae Ruth and Rev. Fred Walters of Prescott, Arkansas.

He leaves cherished memories with his mother, Carolyn Walters; Father, Jeremiah (Angela) Walters both of Prescott, Arkansas; Sister, Angellica of San Antonio, Texas; (3) Aunts, Vernial Conner of Cedar Hill, Texas, Freddie (Richard) Burks, and Michelle Lloyd both of Prescott, Arkansas; (3) uncles, Eric Conner of Hope, Arkansas, Vernell (Willa) Walters of Reader, Arkansas, and Joseph David (Debora) Walters of Lewisville, Arkansas; Grandfather, McArthur Conner (Ethel) of Hope, Arkansas; Grandmother Dorothy Young of Prescott, Arkansas; Special Godmother, Joyce Lamar of Flint, Michigan; Special Friend, William Campbell of Reed, Arkansas; Father in Music Ministry, Rev. Joe Battle, and a host of cousins, great aunts, great uncles, other relatives, and friends.
