

Miss Kimora R. Jamerson

September 10, 2007 - November 2, 2025

With deep love and tender remembrance, the family of Kimora Jamerson, age 18, honors her peaceful transition on November 2, 2025. Born on September 10, 2007, Kimora spent the majority of her life in the compassionate care of long-term support professionals, where she was surrounded by individuals who tended to her needs with kindness and dedication.

Although Kimora faced challenges that required continuous care, her life was meaningful, and her presence was a quiet reminder of the strength, perseverance, and unconditional love that family can hold. She was cherished deeply by those who knew her story and by all who held her in their hearts.

Kimora leaves to honor her memory her loving parents, Cassandra Calton and David Young; her sisters, Shardae Calton and Lavette Jamerson; nieces, Raniya Wesley and Shamelle Flowers; nephews, Eli Burnell and Keon Burnell; and aunts, Laurinda Doss, Betty Loudermill, and Kathy Sears. Each of them carries forward the love they shared for her, grateful for the time she was entrusted to them.

Though her journey on this earth was brief, Kimora's life touched those around her in quiet and meaningful ways. Her family finds comfort in knowing she is now at rest, free from all limitations, embraced by eternal peace.

Graveside services will be held on Monday, November 17th, 2025, at Free Hope Cemetery in Magnolia, Arkansas at 1:00 p.m., under the direction of R.L. Reed Funeral Home, LLC.

“For precaution due to the COVID-19, Masks are Encouraged but Not Required While Attending the Services. However, wearing masks ensures safety for you and others. Thank you.”
