“ I love you Aunt Lou and will miss you deeply! You always treated me like I was one of your kids and you stayed in touch with me all these years; even after Mama and Mother had gone on to Heaven. My first memory of you was walking down the aisle holding the train of your bridal gown when you married Uncle LJ. I think I was four! Through the years, we built a bond that couldn't be broken!

I'm sorry that I can't make the trip but I couldn't get my travel plans together that quickly. Just know that you'll always be a part of me. Rest in Peace Now. God needed your gifts and sense of humor in Heaven!

Love always,

Your niece,

Lorraine Haley
