Sending heartfelt sincere condolences to the family of Mrs. Mae Bell. Mrs. Mae Bell was my neighbor for many, many years in Calhoun Heights. She shared many vegetables from her garden and her freezer, canned tomato relish and other canned foods. She was truly a kind, giving person. Always giving with a smile and the opened handedness which would let you know it was from the heart. We had many kitchen conversations about life and how we as Christians could make a difference in this ole world. She tried to implement what she talked about. What a true Christian lady was she. After her health started to decline, we would stay in touch by telephone. She will be missed. As you prepare to lay your loved one to rest and celebrate her wonderful life, please know that there are others who share in your grief and also celebrate with you the wonderful life of Mrs. Mae Bell. Rest well Mrs. Mae Bell, enjoy the sweet peace where there is no more worries, pain and heart aches, just resting with your Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. We will meet again. 🎵💖🙏🌟📖
