

Mrs. Maggie B. Washington-Madison

December 12, 1919 - December 15, 2021

The Columbia County community has lost a celebrated member. Mrs. Maggie B. Washington-Madison entered eternal rest at age 102 on Wednesday, December 15, 2021—three days after celebrating her monumental birthday. She was born to Mrs. Carrie Washington-Dancer on December 12, 1919.

She accepted her Lord and Savior Jesus Christ early in life and was a member of Rock of Ages Church of God in Christ in Waldo, Arkansas, under the leadership of the late Elder Walter Whatley, III, and his wife, Pastor Thelma Whatley until the Lord called her home. She was an ordained Missionary and served faithfully in many capacities at the church. One noted service in the church was Sunday School teacher.

Before moving back to Arkansas, Maggie was a Seamstress and Nurse in Battle Creek, Michigan by profession. Once she came back to her home state, she became a Domestic Engineer (Housewife). Maggie not only cared and cooked for her family, but she also extended heart for service to the people in her neighborhood. Maggie's baked cookies proved to be a treat to her Barber husband's clients as well as her family and friends. Her divine passion in life was always being of service to others.

Maggie's love for God, family, and friends was a true treasure. Her infectious smile and warmth could be felt by all who were blessed to be in her presence.

She believed that all jobs should be done right; and if she was put in the position of delegating a task to you, she made sure that you did your job right. Maggie was no doubt the boss. Her light in this life will be sorely missed.

She was preceded in death by her mother, Carrie Washington-Dancer; husband, Agrippa Madison; her two children: Tyree Paschal, Jr. and David Madison; seven siblings: Talley Washington (Georgia), Jonah Natley (Doll), Billie Joe Edwards (Katie), Johnnie Williams (Obie), Classie Washington Hawthorne (Clemons), Susanne Williams Glover (Rev. Glover), and Katherine Williams; one granddaughter, Youlanda Madison; and one great grandson, Tory Johnson.

Those left to cherish her beautiful memories are her grandchildren: Vicky Johnson (John) and Stephanie Boyd; great grandchildren: Torrell Johnson, Krystal Johnson, Khyron Winfield, and William Chandler; great-great grandchildren: Jaida Wesley and Torrell Johnson Jr.; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives, church family, and friends.

Celebration of life services will be held Tuesday, December 21st, 2021, at R.L. Reed Funeral Home Chapel in Magnolia, AR. at 11:00 a.m., with burial to follow at St. Peters Cemetery in Willisville, AR, under the direction of R.L. Reed Funeral Home, LLC. Rev. James Fred Williams, Eulogist.

Visitation will be Monday, December 20th, from 11:00 – 2:00 p.m.

Due to the COVID-19 Pandemic, “Everyone Is Required to Wear A Mask While Attending the Services and During Visitation Hours”. This ensures safety for you and others. Thank you in advance for your cooperation.

“ Grandma Maggie was my cousin but also my grandma. She is a beautiful woman who taught me a lot with Papa Grippa. I still remember how she used to eat Buttermilk and Cornbread out of a cup. My Sis Yolanda was a sis I never had and though we all was cousins we were more like Closer family and they lived right beside us on the Land while me and my Mom HELLEN R. JONES. We ate from the pecan tree in the yard. Use old washboards and clothes wires...picked corn out their field. Long Story Short Grandma Maggie was a great and loving woman and mentor for me and my mom. You are missed but not forgotten -Sincerely Justin "Credible" Huggins. FB Justin Credible if any of the family wants to reach me.
