“ Mary Anna was my closest cousin but she was also one of my best friends. How do you pick memories out of almost 70 years of knowing each other. I guess I'll just have to pick 2. She sang at my wedding.
And she lived with me. We got very close and loved each other, (most of the time lol). We lived so far apart when we grew up. Her in Memphis and me in Dallas.
But we always loved each other.
When my mom passed I was so lost.
She put her hand on my shoulder for comfort and left it there for the whole service. And yes it was very comforting. I'll never forget that.
I miss and love you so very much.
My prayers are with the family.
