As I called her: Sister Mattie. Sister Mattie was not just a sister-in-law to me; she was a sister. She came into our family by marriage when I was not even old enough to attend school. When I needed help with someone to take care of my child for a time; it was Sister Mattie who stepped up and said Buddy and I will keep him for you. I shall never forget her for just that one kind deed. All through her life she was kind and gentle. She did not smile a lot but when she did; her whole face lit up. She would say what was on her mind; but she did it in love. I shall miss her presence; but I will try to emulate her kindness by passing it on.....Ruthie Powell
