

Mr. Nicholas Deonte Beraud

January 6, 1989 - April 27, 2024

Bro. Nicholas Deonte Beraud, 35, of McNeil, Arkansas, passed away Saturday, April 27th, 2024, in an automobile accident in McNeil, Arkansas.

The life of Nicholas Deonte Beraud, affectionately known as “Nico,” began January 6, 1989, in Magnolia, Arkansas. There to welcome him into the world were his parents, Valerie M. Jones and Cedric Beraud.

He received his spiritual rearing at St. Matthew Baptist Church at a young age; and he accepted Christ into his life and was baptized.

Nicholas was a 2007 graduate of Stephens High School in Stephens, Arkansas. At the time of his passing, he was employed with DOMAN (Hixson) Lumber Company as a Saw Operator. Nico was dedicated and loyal to his job as well as to his co-workers.

Nico had a quiet nature about himself. He was a person of few words but had a very loving and kind-hearted personality that surrounded his “quietness”. He loved, and was generous to, both family and friends. Nico was also loved by many and was thought to be a gentle giant.

If you knew anything about Nico, you’d know that he liked to eat. One would really be speaking his kind of language at the mere mention of “food.” Nico also had a passion for classic cars. His admiration for the restoration of those vintage vehicles left a lasting impression on those who were sharing in his world.

On Friday, April 26, 2024, Nicholas's passage to earthly absence transitioned to a Heavenly pathway of presence with the Lord.

He was preceded in death by his maternal grandparents, Irene and James (Jim) Jones, Sr.; and his paternal grandfather, Irving Beraud, Sr.

He leaves to cherish his memory his loving mother, Valerie Jones; treasured father, Cedric (Brenda) Beraud; one sister, Tylaa Beraud; bonus sister, Kiana Wesley; one brother, Rorey Doss; and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, cherished co-workers, and friends who will miss him dearly Celebration of Life services will be held Saturday, May 4th, 2024, at R.L. Reed Funeral Home Chapel in Magnolia, Arkansas at 2:30 p.m., under the direction of R.L. Reed Funeral Home, LLC.

There is no scheduled visitation.

“For precaution due to the COVID-19, Masks are Encouraged but Not Required While Attending the Services. However, wearing masks ensures safety for you and others. Thank you.”
