“ The memories of growing up with my 1st cousin, which was more like my older sister, will never fade. We would stay up late talking and giggling about any and everything and for those that knew FeFe, she loved to laugh. I will cherish those many happy memories forever. Rest well and I am sure you have a huge, beautiful smile on your angelic face right now. I love you and will miss you Sis. ❤️

“ I’m sorry to hear this! Phyllis was a sweetheart with the most beautiful smile. I hadn’t seen her in years, to hear of her passing is heartbreaking. I went to Walker High School with her and it was always pleasant to be in her company. The family is in my prayers.
