“ All my prayers are with the family. He was a wonderful man. I would call and tell him I needed a car and he would find me one. I locked myself out of the house one day and Leo and I tried to get in but we failed. All we did was called Rodney. He came right over and I was in the house in about five minutes. This is just a couple of things he did for me. He was so special. I feel like I have lost a part of my family too. Love and peace to you.

“ When I was about 10, Heather had a birthday/sleepover party. It was was awesome! At one point, someone put the movie Nightmare before Christmas on. I was absolutely terrified but couldn't seem to get up and walk away. Mr.Rodney came and sat with me. “We'll be scared together,” he said. Was I still scared? Yep!! Was I alone! Nope! Thanks Mr.Rodney! Sometimes things change but we still have our memories to remind us of all the special “someone's” in our life whether or not they were there for long time. “I'm so sorry for your loss” doesn't really bring comfort but I hope this memory does.
