

Mrs. Rosa M. White

June 7, 1948 - February 24, 2021

Rosa was born in Camden, New Jersey to the union of the late Velma Lee Fulgen Terry and Curtis Nathaniel Terry. She was educated in the Dallas Independent School District. After high school she dedicated her life to helping her widowed mother raise her 6 siblings; always putting their needs before her own. Rosa worked for Howard Wolfe Clothing Company, Dallas, Texas in Sales until they closed, and then at Presbyterian Hospital, Food Services, Dallas, Texas until the decline of her health.

Rosa accepted Christ early in her life under the Pastorage of the late Rev. H. A. Robertson, Peniel Baptist Church, Dallas, Texas, and was a strong and praying Christian. She could always be heard shouting in Church of the goodness of God in her life. She was a walking testimony of surviving breast cancer and heart transplant for so many years.

Rosa met and married the love of her life, Victor White, Jr. and relocated to Victor's hometown of Stamps, Arkansas, where she then moved her church membership to Greenville Missionary Baptist Church, Stamps, Arkansas under the Pastorage of the late Rev. James Fred Williams and continued her faithful service under Pastor Dr. Neich Robinson, Jr. She faithfully served as a member of the Choir; Contact Committee; Prayer Leader, and wherever the Lord called upon her to be used. Rosa was loved by so many. Her handprint of love will be left on the hearts of us all. Blessed be the name of the Lord.

Rosa is survived by her devoted husband, Victor White, Jr.; Stepchildren: Christilis (“CC”) Thompson, Nicholas White; Siblings: Cynthia C. Fuggent and Terry Michael Terry; Nieces: Kelli Fuggent, Christy A. Terry, and Rayna I. Terry; Nephews: Miles Fuggent, Brandon Terry, Damon Terry and Richard Lewis Terry Taylor, and a host of other relatives and friends. She is preceded in death by her parents, Curtis, and Velma Terry; Sister: Velma Pearl Terry, and Brothers: Wallace Edgar Terry, Curtis Nathaniel Terry and Raymond Allen Terry; Stepson: Nicholas White.

She would always say, “Remember your sister loves you. Never forget that.”

“ There is no greater gift or feeling than the warmth from the flame of love from a loving sister. I shall miss my sister dearly and will never forget her witness of how good God is to us. I especially shall miss her calls and sending her care packages from Texas containing clothes to dress her up for Sunday. She carried the message of hope and faith and changed lives as a result of her testimony. So now my sisters and brothers, let us stay near the cross as she did letting everyone know there is still room for one. Love, baby sister, Cindy.
