“ Family, I'm sorry for your loss: 2 Peter 3:13 provides comfort by telling us that we, along with our lost loved ones, can look forward to dwelling in a righteous ... new earth; with the hope of everlasting life, promised by God, who cannot lie. Titus 1:2

“ I remember when uncle Jackie and her used to go to the store and always getting into arguments about little thing like who meat to get or do we have this or that.....Jackie always says, you do know me and she said No! You dont know me! I used to laugh at them all the time.....Im going to miss her but those special moments will always be in my heart....

Thank you my grandma for those memories and I love you

She was married to my uncle, Edward Harris. They lived in Chicago during my childhood years. I vividly recall when the family would come down south to visit! It was always a very pleasant time for family gatherings! Certainly, I will relish those times and memories! Praying for my family! You still have so many reasons to rejoice- 97 years! What a blessed life she was given!
