

Mr. Rudolph Leevester Harris

February 22, 1962 - February 18, 2022

Rudolph L. Harris, 59, of Magnolia, Arkansas, passed away peacefully at his home in Magnolia, Arkansas on Friday, February 18, 2022. He was born on February 22, 1962, in Magnolia, Arkansas, to Abe Harris and Rosetta Dillard.

Rudolph accepted Christ at an early age under the leadership of the late Rev. Cal Sheppard Sr.

Rudolph was a 1981 graduate of Magnolia High School. Shortly after graduating, he worked at Alcoa for 25 years, and is now currently employed with Albemarle, and has been employed for 11 years.

Rudolph loved and devoted his time to his family. He enjoyed playing dominoes, and baking cakes. He could feed 12 people with one cake! He will always be remembered for his humbleness and famous saying, "Chile, you ain't gone worry me!"

Rudolph was preceded in death by his grandmother, Bessie McClellan; Mother, Rosetta Dillard; Brothers, Randolph Harris, and Jerome Page; Sisters, Lorraine Page, and Patricia Johnson.

Rudolph leaves to cherish his memories with wife, Eloise Harris; (2) Sons, RaShod L. (Shatarica) Harris, and Ta'Ru A. Harris; Daughter, Raelyn L. Harris; Special Daughter/Niece, Daniel'le M. Barnes; (3) Brothers, Larry (Aserene) Watts, Tyrone (Geneva) Dillard, and John (Betty) Page; Sister, Tracey (James) Ford; (7) Grandchildren, Paris Black, Jaedyn Black, TaKenya Davis, Houston Davis, Elijah Harris, Bre Harris, and Kendall Harris, and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives, and friends.

Memorial services for Rudolph Harris are private per family request.

The family of Rudolph Harris would like to thank everyone for your kind words, prayers, and love shown during our time of bereavement.

“ My dear friend, I will always remember your tender handling of the word of God. Our thing was BTU. When you told me I influenced you to return on Sunday evenings that gave me determination not to give up on others. It's not what you give others but how sincere words give others hope. You were a gentleman that I loved dearly. Rest my friend.

“ I worked with, and around Rodolph for 24 years. I always enjoyed being around him. He was a great example of what a good man should be. He had a saying when I would be teasing about something, he would say" you are not going to bother me." I am sorry to learn of this. Prayers for the family. I know he's going to be greatly missed. I know he's in the presence of the lord. We loved Rudolph.
