

Ms. Susie Mae McDole

March 12, 1928 - December 13, 2018

Ms. Susie Mae McDole, 90, of Taylor, AR, passed away Thursday, December 13th, at Summit Health & Rehab in Magnolia, AR. She was born March 12th 1928 to Deacon Clarence McDole and Sister Hossie Lee Lawson in McKamie, AR.

She had one daughter; Barbara McDole Wilson. Her Christian experience began at the age of 12, when she joined the St. Paul Baptist Church under the leadership of the late Rev. N.S. Coleman. She was a dedicated and faithful member until her health began to fail her. She served in many capacities including; director of BTU, she sung in the choir, president of the usher board/usher, leader of tribe 1, secretary of Sunday School, member of the Dorcus Circle, and was very active in the congress of Christian Education. She loved putting on her beautiful hats and dressing up for service and praising her heavenly father. She loved her church. She also loved the outdoors; working in her flower beds and riding that old lawnmower with her straw-hat. She and her daughter loved to go shopping together. Susie graduated from Oak Grove High School in Rosston, AR. She was a domestic worker for Mr. & Mrs. Danny Scott for numerous years.

She is preceded in death by her parents. She leaves to cherish her precious memories to her loving daughter; Barbara McDole-Wilson (James) and a host of cousins and friends.

Celebration of life will be held Saturday December 22nd, at 11:00 am at St. Paul Baptist Church in Taylor, AR. With burial to follow at Friendship Cemetery in Stamps, AR. Officiant will be Rev. William Cooper.

Visitation will be held Friday December 21st from 5-6:00 pm at the funeral home.
