“ To my Hill and Smith families you are in my prayers. Our families have suffered great losses this year (first Cousin Jerry, then Aunt Vala Ree, and now Aunt Velma.) Aunt Velma was the last living sibling of my dad’s generation. Looking back over the years makes you realize how fast time passes by. I remember when the out of town relatives would come down to Arkansas. Their first visit would be Grandmo, Aunt Velma, and Tina’s houses. Their homes were like the hubs of the Smith family. They would stop by our house to see my mom and dad and stop by Uncle Fred and Aunt Minnie B in McNeil. Oh the dressing, the pies, the tall cakes, the meatloaf! I have fond memories of me, Teresa, Tracy, and Ronald playing at their house in the summertime. (Tracy was our ring leader!) I remember Aunt Velma trying to teach me how to crochet. She did it with such ease. God has blessed us with wonderful grandparents (Fletcher and Ora Smith) and parents who taught us well. Our Smith family bond is strong because of the seeds our parents (John Lee, Fletcher Jr., James Howard, Fred Lee, Velma Ree, Vala Ree, and Robert Lee) started planting many years ago and above all the love of God that they led us to. We love our Aunt Velma and enjoyed spending time with her. I loved seeing her smile when we came by for a visit. Cousins Tina and John, and grandkids Michelle and Brittney and great grand kids, we lift you up in prayer during this difficult time. May God comfort you all.

Love your Cousins Kaisha and Mona Ray

*To My Cousins Earnestine, John and Family.
I have joyful memories of visiting with Aunt Velma when I came to Waldo, Arkansas as a child and as an adult. She always had that big hug, beautiful warm smile, and funny sense of humor ready that made everybody laugh! She was Daddy's (Fletcher Smith, Jr.) last living sibling. She loved her family and will be missed. I pray the Good Lord will comfort and keep all of you during this most difficult time.*
