sending warm words of love and sympathy to the Frierson Family. As you prepare to lay your loved one to rest find comfort in knowing you have others who share in your grief, you do not grieve alone. Remembering all the beautiful memories you made with her will help suffice you through these hard times. Verna was a sweet loving person with such a quiet sweet spirit. She always had that shy smile whenever you would see her. Psalms 34:18, "The Lord is close to the brokenhearted and saves those who are crushed in spirit." Rest now Verna with your Lord and Savior, no more pain nor sorry, just sweet peace and rest. 💕🕊️🙏🌹🌟📖

“ Kind, sweet, loving, thoughtful, encouraging, caring, helpful, nurturing...that’s what I see when I think about my auntie. From childhood to my adulthood, there’s literally nothing I can think of that anyone can say negative about this lady of God. I can still hear her laugh when there was anything funny in conversations, sitting outside on the front porch with mommy and my grandparents at gmas house. They would get together and shell those purple hull peas, meanwhile the twins and I would be outside in the yard playing til our hearts content. There were many days like that. Sometimes auntie and the twins would come by the house just to sit and talk with everybody in the living room...that was everyone’s hangout. Just to sit and talk about what everybody in the family had going on, what was happening with people they know in the community, etc...always a living room full of people and other visitors. I loved that about our family. And her laugh is something I’ll never forget. There was a time in my adult life that I can remember most, that really touched my soul...a time when I was really going through. I never knew that she knew anything about what I had going on but somehow she found out and reached out to me. She let me know that I was worthy, that I mattered and that I was loved, and to never give up on life, and that if I ever needed someone to talk to then she was always a phone call away! At that point that’s when I really understood that even though we may not always be in each others presence did not mean the love wasn’t there. She showed me how much she cared. So auntie, just know that you really hit me hard with this one, but I knew what you were going through, and I know that you’re better now, in the arms of our Heavenly Father, with your baby boy Jason, gma Flozie and poppy Clarence, and many other family members that have gone on before you. So rest well auntie...we all love and miss you, and I’ll see you later!
