Eccles 3:1, 2: " To everything there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven: A time to be born, and a time to die, a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted." Waylon exemplified the ways of a Godly soldier. He was always showing compassion and love for his fellow man. You could always depend on him doing the right thing no matter the cost. Not only will he be missed in the workforce, but also in his community. God knew that it was time to stamp his papers honorably discharged, earthly service completed. It was time to go home to be with the Lord where there would be no more pain nor suffering, just peace, sweet peace and rest. Rest well Waylon. We will see you again.

“ Waylon and I were friends for as long as I can remember back to early in school and graduated together. It was my honor to call him a good friend. He was always very nice to everyone and everyone truly liked him as a friend. I couldn't believe it when I heard the news and it brings great sadness to my heart. Until we meet again my good friend. Prayers to his family and friends.
