"May the works I've done, speak for me". Mr. Mixon was always the life of the party. He loved to make people laugh and you could tell he loved being happy. He enjoyed coming to Senior Citizen Center to fellowship and eat. He was a joy to be around. Rest in peace Mr. Mixon.

“ To the daughters Tasha and Tamika, pray for strength and guidance. Everytime we talked uncle Bill had something to say about the two of you (all good) and we would laugh about it. Just remember he loved you so much. Read John 3:16. I will miss your phone calls to that made laugh. RIP
